Dated Mysore 10th Augt 1897.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Revenue and General Departments.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Mysore City Police charged one Chamundisvara Meistri of the Mysore town for being in possession of sulphur and saltpetre and selling the same without a license, and placed him for trial before the City Magistrate for an offence punishable under Section 14 Clause x) of the Arms Regulation. The latter did not take cognizance of the case as the Police failed to show that the Government had by notification specified that Military stores included sulphur and saltpetre as stated in the
